§ 24.712 Conference.

Within 30 days after receiving a notice of limited denial of participation, the respondent may request a conference with the official who issued such notice. If the respondent does not request a conference, the respondent shall nevertheless have the right to contest the limited denial of participation under the provisions of § 24.713. The conference shall be held within 15 days after the Department's receipt of the request for a conference, unless the respondent waives this time limit. The official who imposed the sanction, or his or her designee, shall preside. At the conference, the respondent may appear with a representative and may present all relevant information and materials to the official or designee. Within 20 days after the conference, or within 20 days after any agreed upon extension of time for submission of additional materials by the respondent, the official or designee shall, in writing, advise the respondent of the decision to terminate, modify, or affirm the limited denial of participation. If all or a portion of the remaining period of exclusion is affirmed, the notice of affirmation shall advise the respondent of the opportunity to contest the notice pursuant to § 24.713. If the official or designee does not issue a decision within the 20-day period, the respondent may contest the sanction under § 24.713.
